Family Home Care named as top Family Business in Washington State

SEATTLE (November 18, 2015) – Family Home Care was named as one of 13 companies honored at the 6th annual Washington Family Business Awards by Seattle Business magazine. Seattle Business magazine honored the impact and legacy of Washington state's top family-run companies at the 2015 Family Business Awards Tuesday evening at Bell Harbor International Conference Center. Thirteen firms from around the state were honored for outstanding achievements in family business. The event received the generous support of presenting sponsor Cascadia Capital and signature sponsors Bader Martin, Chase Commercial Banking, Perkins Coie LLP and BNY Mellon.

Family Home Care won the top spot in the midsize firm category. 9 Members of the Wiberg Family, the owners of FHC, were in attendance at the ceremony.

"We are deeply honored to be recognized for the work we have done to create a company that is founded on the value of family and lives family values. Being in a family business is challenging, we are pleased that the systems and goals we adhere to are seen as best practice." – Jeff Wiberg, President and CEO.
